

Billionaire God of War Chapter 6 To 10

Chapter 6 Conditions are not the cynthiae

“You!”

Oliver was furious, but he dared not fight back.

His hand was interrupted by Andrew, this lunatic!

He didn't want to cause this neurosis!

Stuart frowned. He didn't expect that he had found Emma's son-in-law, who was really a neuropathy. He dared to fight Oliver in his own face.

“I haven't settled the accounts with you yet!”

Stuart narrowed his eyes with a predominant gesture.

But when he saw Andrew's eyes, he seemed to have fallen into the abyss!

Both legs couldn't help but tremble slightly.

It's like seeing a terrifying beast, opening his blood basin!

What a terrible look!

“Look for me to settle the account?”

Andrew said lightly. “It seems that you are not here to ask Emma to go back to work, but to make trouble.”

Oliver, Stuart calmed down instantly and forced down his anger.

He didn't want to delay the most important things because of a neuropathy.

After signing the contract, pack them up!

“Huh, Emma, Matthew's need you, come back to help.”

He looked at Emma, but there was no sincerity in his tone.

Emma didn't know what to do for a while.

Even Cynthia was stunned.

She never thought that Stuart would one day come in person to invite Emma to work.

It's just that their attitude was just too angry!

"You still don't seem to understand."

Emma really didn't know how to speak, and Andrew helped her.

"I want to remind you last time that you have to whisper to ask for help. Today's attitude is not good enough. If you come again tomorrow, the conditions will be different."

Oliver, Stuart's face finally changed.

His eyelids jumped and looked at Andrew coldly.

"You really think that without Emma, we can't sign this project?"

www.onlinefreenovels.com

"Do not believe it, you try."

Andrew still calm, calmly let Cynthia and Emma both looked a little dumbfounded.

This... this is really the homeless son-in-law they just recruited?

"Emma, my dad gives you the opportunity to don't understand and cherish!"

Oliver said angrily.

Emma really stiffened his chest and said firmly: "I'm not rare!"

"Good! Good! Good!"

Stuart said three good words, glanced at the three Andrew, and smiled at the back room. And shouted, "Logan, you are the head of the family, well done !” After he finished speaking, he snorted and turned Oliver away.

The door of the back room only opened at this moment, Logan rolled out of the wheelchair and came out pale.

Stuart did not leave, he did not dare to come out.

“Big brother is angry?”

Logan said a little timidly, “What can I do?”

Sumie glanced at him, not angry.

When your daughter was bullied, where were you?

It’s good now, and ask them what to do!

“It’s not just a job, I’m not rare.”

Emma really looked at his parents. “Dad, mom, you can rest assured that I can feed you!”

cynthia looked at her daughter and was very distressed.

The responsibility of this family is on her shoulders.

She wanted to take care of Logan, just to help Emma, but she couldn’t help anything.

“There is still me.”

Andrew said, “I will take care of you too.”

Suddenly, both Logan and cynthia looked at Andrew.

Just now Andrew gave Oliver a slap, just because he did not speak badly to cynthia, and cynthia looked at it. Even if she didn’t like Andrew anymore, she couldn’t say anything at the moment.

“I’ll cook.”

cynthia turned into the kitchen.

Logan didn't know what to say, and entered the back room again, closing the door.

Emma really pulled Andrew into the house, and it was a little unexpected.

"You, what did you just say?"

"I said, I will take care of your parents with you."

"Ah?"

Emma looked at Andrew with a stern look.

She has not accepted that Andrew is her husband.

She was even thinking about when Andrew could make it clear that they were impossible.

Not only because of Andrew's background, he is ten years older than himself.

"Uncle..."

Emma hesitated.

"You are ready to sign a contract at any time and adjust your status."

Emma really forgot what she just said when she heard Andrew's words.

"Uncle, will they really come to me again?" Mr.

Daniel's project has indeed been followed up, but the details are almost the cynthiae, only the contract is left, and it is just a form.

You can sign for anyone else, but you don't have to go by yourself?

Needless to say, Stuart and his son have a wide network in Fingol City. It's not easy to find a personal matchmaker.

"Well, you have to."

Andrew said very simply.

...

Stuart and his son returned home.

“Bang!”

Oliver shattered the teacup on the table directly.

Why?” He roared, “Dad, why did you stop me? I’m going to kill that neuropathy!”

Andrew slapped one after another. This was going to spread. How could Oliver still be in the South Estopia?

How would anyone laugh at him, he was beaten by a neuropathy.

“Don’t provoke neurosis, they don’t commit crimes when killing people.”

Stuart snorted.

He did not expect that he wanted to choose Emma’s most wasteful husband, but he picked a lunatic.

This kind of person is less than a last resort. He doesn’t want to provoke him at all.

But why is Andrew’s eyes so terrible? Even people like themselves who have been in the mall for a long time are a little scared when they see it.

He is a neuropathy, it would be normal to fear him.

“Dad, what should I do now? Emma is a bitch, and we are also whispering to beg her, and she dreams!”

He didn’t believe it. Without Emma, this project would not be available.

Stuart narrowed his eyes, took out his cell phone, and made a few calls.

“Then I will trouble you and invite you to dinner another day!”

He found someone who knew President Daniel and took the lead.

The details of the project are almost the cynthiae. The signing of the contract is just a form. He doesn't believe it. This Daniel is willing to sacrifice such a big benefit for a cheap woman!

“Relax, President Matthew and they often have cooperation with Headquarters Daniel, let him help with no problem.”

Although there are some costs to pay, it is better than whispering to Emma's family.

Hearing this, Oliver finally felt relieved.

“Dad, when this project is settled, I want to get Emma's family out of the South Estopia!”

Oliver's eyes flashed a bit of evil thought, “If it's not because she is my sister, I want to...”

“Oliver, don't do anything too After that, knowing by grandpa, you are done.”

Oliver calmed down instantly.

www.onlinefreenovels.com

He just thinks about it. Although Emma looks beautiful, what woman does he want?

“Ring Ring Ring...” The father and son were talking, Stuart's cell phone rang.

He picked it up, and Mr. Li returned, and it seemed that the matter had been resolved.

“Mr. Li, how is it easy for you...”

“Stuart, what's your peace of mind! If you offended Mr. Daniel, let me touch the mold? Now even our company's cooperation is fail. Issac fu*ks your mother!” “You fu*king deliberately pitted me, I wrote this down!”

Over there, President Matthew screamed and hung up the phone directly.

Stuart suddenly froze.

What do you mean?

Doesn't Li even say good things?

Even Mr. Li's project is yellow?

What does this mean Daniel always mean!

"Dad, no... don't you really want us to whisper to ask Emma really?" Oliver slipped.

Chapter 7 whispering

Doesn't Li even say good things?

Doesn't it mean that Mr. Li and Mr. Daniel were classmates before, and the relationship is very good?

Oliver was just arrogant, but he couldn't laugh at the moment.

If Emma could only be signed, then they would have to whisper to beg her.

Stuart's face was blue.

He did not expect that things would be so difficult.

This Emma, in the end, what method was used to make this President Daniel so maintain her.

"This bitch woman!"

Stuart sneered. "It seems that her bed is good at work, and the plain fashion is pure, it's all fake!"

If President Daniel is well served, will President Daniel maintain her like this?

Shit!

Now let him ask Emma to tell the truth, this is impossible.

He is just asking for a dog, it is impossible to ask Logan's family for waste.

"Ring Ring Ring..."

Oliver's cell phone rang again.

When he looked at the number, his face was even more ugly.

"It's grandpa."

Oliver almost cried.

What he is most afraid of now is to answer Matthew's call.

Now he is responsible for this project. If something goes wrong, he is the first person in charge.

"Go!"

Stuart said.

Oliver can only be connected.

If you don't answer Grandpa's call, the consequences will be more serious.

"Grandpa." Oliver shouted.

"Oliver, what happened to President Daniel's project?"

Matthew came straight to the point.

What he is most concerned about now is this project. After all, this is too important. The Matthew Family has invested too much resources into it.

"Very well, everything went smoothly."

Oliver glanced at Stuart and saw him wink, lied quickly, "When Daniel always has time, he can sign the contract immediately."

"That's good."

Matthewdao, "You can Please pay attention to me, this project can not be tolerated, something went wrong, I want you to look good!" The phone hung up.

Oliver's palms are sweaty.

He was too clear about his grandpa's temper.

If something really goes wrong, it's not that you can get rid of your post and beat yourself with a meal.

"Dad, what can I do."

Oliver almost cried.

Emma, a bitch, throws this hot potato into himself, but he will kill himself!

Stuart's face was even more ugly.

Do they really want to go to the Logan family and plead with each other in a low voice?

They were still high-spirited before, and they didn't even take Emma into their eyes, so they pleaded, and what was the difference from being slapped?

He can't afford to lose this man!

"Oliver, you go."

Stuart thought for a long time, and said, "You go to Emma, it's okay to whisper, even if you let you kneel, you can kneel to me, as long as Emma signed me the contract!"

"Dad..."

"Do you want me to kneel and beg!"

Stuart roared, his eyes red.

Oliver has a face, Stuart has a face!

Let him be an elder to ask for a junior. This is really shameful when it is passed on.

Oliver was afraid to say another word.

This matter was calculated by him, and if Stuart's face was affected by this, then he would really be pumped to death.

Oliver had no choice but to grit his teeth and walked towards Emma's house.

And then.

Emma's family has dinner.

The dining table is not big, and each of the four people is silent.

This is the real house of Emma. For the first time, one person will eat alone.

Or their son-in-law.

Logan never talked at dinner, and Cynthia did not know what to say.

She didn't like Andrew, more she didn't like her daughter and married a man who was worthless.

But Andrew stood up in the afternoon and made a start for herself. She was not blind and could not pretend to be invisible.

Emma also didn't know what to say.

On the contrary, Andrew, like being in his own home, is not at all polite.

"Mom, you craft a good, tastes great!"

"I do not know how long eaten such delicious dishes!"

"I have another bowl of it?"

Dishes on the table, less meat, vegetarian There are so many, but the appearance of Andrew is really greedy.

In this regard, Emma really thought, when he was wandering outside, I am afraid he was too hungry too much.

Not waiting for cynthia's reaction, Emma took Andrew's rice bowl and went to help him hold another bowl.

"Thank you wife." The word " wife " made Emma's hand holding a rice spoon tremble.

"Knock Knock!"

The atmosphere was awkward, and the door rang again.

Logan looked up and wanted to get into the back room, and was sternly stared at by cynthia, so he could not move there.

"Who!"

cynthia shouted.

"Auntie, it's me, Oliver!" In this voice, it sounded a little unwilling and a little helpless.

cynthia suddenly looked at Emma for a real glance, why did he come again?

Is it true, as Andrew said, to ask Emma really?

The mother and daughter immediately looked at Andrew, but Andrew just bowed his head to eat.

cynthia went to the door and opened the door, Oliver immediately put on a smiley face.

"Auntie, what about eating? Is the Emma really here?"

Oliver's expression of flattering, he didn't smile so flatteringly to his father.

As soon as he probed, he saw Emma sitting there and hurriedly said: “Emma, the previous things are all wrong with me. I apologize to you, you will not remember the villain, and spare me this time.”

Emma three People, suddenly stunned.

Can Oliver really beg for mercy?

“Matthew Group can’t live without you. What happened to the company just one day after you left?”

Oliver bowed his waist slightly and smiled, “You go back, there are a lot of projects, waiting for you to host it.”

He He said, but he was swearing.

When the project is over, see how you can clean up this family!

“How about your dad?”

Emma really didn’t know how to answer, and Andrew helped her.

He slurped vegetables while glancing at Oliver. “Why didn’t he come?”

Oliver’s anger rose, but he still kept smiling.

“My dad is too busy, so let me come and apologize to Emma, and hope my brother-in-law can forgive me, and don’t follow my general knowledge.”

Oliver really whispered.

Even Andrew’s son-in-law, he apologized.

“No

,” Andrew shook his head directly. “It’s really your father who expelled the rain. If you want to apologize, you have to come, otherwise we won’t accept it.”

Oliver was about to explode.

You are so fu*king tight!

“You...” Oliver had the urge to swear.

What kind of nerve is this neuropathy!

Several people of Emma also looked at Andrew, fearing that Andrew would cause trouble.

Oliver has come to apologize, this matter, or just pass it.

Their father and son are not easy to offend.

“Dad, Mom, Yu is really your baby daughter. She was wronged before, it’s your control,”

Andrew swallowed the last bite. “She is my wife now, and when she is wronged, I have to control it.”

He stood. Up, there was a strong murderous flash in his eyes!

“Who dares to bully my wife, I have to pay for it!”

Suddenly, the terrifying murderousness instantly cooled down the surrounding air, approaching Oliver, and forced him to fight a chill.

“Andrew, don’t go too far!”

Oliver could not bear it.

He was even ready to kneel.

However, Andrew did not look down on his apology at all, and all kneels were white kneels.

“Let your dad apologize, otherwise, you will be at your own risk.”

Andrew is not polite, “Not yet? Our meal has been finished, and no dogs are left!”

Chapter 8 Vicious

Oliver gritted his teeth in anger.

He lowered his posture, so whispered to plead, Andrew's attitude?

They gave them down the steps themselves, and they didn't know what to do!

"You... you wait for me!"

Oliver scolded, afraid that Andrew would start his nerves and hurried away.

In the room, Cynthia and Logan looked at each other, and at the Cynthiae time looked at Emma.

"In this way, will it make things worse?"

Oliver's words before leaving, obviously threatening them.

Emma was really worried.

Who is Stuart and his son, she is too clear.

www.onlinefreenovels.com

He never regarded Logan as his younger brother, and naturally would not regard the Logan family as relatives.

Annoyed him, this kind of person can do anything.

"No,"

Andrew said lightly. "He asked us to wait, and we just waited."

After that, Andrew started to clean up the chopsticks directly. When Cynthia saw it, he hurried over to grab it.

"I'll come here."

This aunt, his temper was a little fierce.

She didn't think that before, but now, Andrew clearly wants to defend their family and prevent Stuart and his son from bullying.

Is this really a tramp?

"Mom worked hard."

Andrew smiled.

He entered the role really fast.

Logan was a little upset, but he didn't know what to say, and this family has never been his final say.

He had to hide in the back room again, closing the door in fear.

"You are really offending them now."

Emma sighed.

Oliver came to apologize and had a good attitude. For so many years, she had not seen Oliver bow her head.

She even thought that big things would become small so as not to intensify conflicts.

But Andrew ignored it and Stuart apologized in person.

How is this possible.

It is impossible for the uncle, who is selfish and self-respecting, to bow his head to apologize.

"You're wrong,"

Andrew's eyes were clear. "They have offended me."

"I said, no one is allowed to bully you."

Emma was really panicked with that look.

an hour passed.

cynthia washed the dishes, saw Andrew went to take a bath, and hurried into Emma's house.

"Mom?"

"Emma, this Andrew, who is he?"

cynthia whispered, "How do I feel, he is different from you."

Emma blushed.

"What to say, we didn't know before."

She bit her lip, but since seeing Andrew, this guy has been protecting himself and his family from bullying by Stuart and his son.

"You really let him sMaxwellp in your room at night?"

cynthia worried about this.

www.onlinefreenovels.com

Although Andrew is now nominally Emma's true husband, their family doesn't want to admit it.

"He is mentally ill!"

She worried that Andrew would hurt Emma.

Emma really hesitated for a moment, thinking of Andrew's clear eyes.

"He won't hurt me." The creak—the bathroom door opened, and cynthia hurriedly went out, saying with his mouth: "I have iron bars in the house, you call me when something happens!"

Emma really blushed. Heartbeat is intense.

Really want Andrew to sMaxwellp in his room?

“Boom!”

The door outside was knocked again.

Logan looked like a frightened cat, with pores all over his body.

cynthia also looked pale.

coming!

Stuart is here!

With his temper, he certainly can't bear it!

Ruined!

Even Emma couldn't help getting nervous. She went to the living room and looked at the door, as if there were dozens of bastards holding sticks behind the door.

A family, like an enemy!

“Open the door.”

Andrew was wiping his head with a towel and smiling, “A guest is coming.”

His casual appearance made Emma feel helpless for a while. Is this guy not afraid, or does it matter?

She walked to the door and opened the door. Stuart was in her eyes, followed by Oliver behind her.

“Emma.”

Stuart's face was not pretty.

But there was still a smile, “Big Dad came to the door and apologized to you!”

Emma was really stunned.

The two of them, who had been eavesdropping on the door, were also stunned.

Stuart really apologized?

“Expelling you is all a misunderstanding, everything is Oliver’s fault, I have taught him.”

Stuart pointed, Oliver immediately bowed his head: “I’m sorry, Emma, I’m wrong, please forgive me.”

“This In fact, Uncle is also wrong. It is wrong for me to expel you without investigating clearly.”

Stuart said, “I hope you can forgive Uncle, the company needs you.” The tone was sincere to the extreme.

If Emma didn’t agree, it wouldn’t work.

“Tomorrow, I will greet you at the door of the company, restore your position, and explain to you personally, to give you a fair.”

Stuart Road.

Having said that, an apology can be said to be full of sincerity, and the attitude is extremely humble.

Looking at Stuart’s waist slightly bowed, Emma really didn’t know what to do.

She looked back subconsciously and saw Andrew nodded, and she agreed.

“Uncle, I know, I will go back tomorrow.”

“Okay, tomorrow, I will be at the gate of the Matthew Group, waiting for you, good night.”

After that, Stuart and his son left.

The door was closed.

Emma's face was still full of disbelief.

Stuart personally came to apologize!

The attitude is still so sincere!

When did she meet?

"Brother really apologized?"

Logan pushed the door open, his lips trembling, and his eyes were red.

For so many years, has his family been bullied by Stuart?

When did he apologize?

In his eyes, he would only embarrass the Matthew Family. If they were not related by blood, they might have driven their family out of the Matthew Family!

"Come and apologize!"

"He's here!"

cynthia was also very excited, obviously suppressed for too long, and some could not control her emotions.

Being a daughter-in-law at the Matthew Family, not only depends on the face of the old man, but also on the face of the elder brother, she has been uncomfortable for decades.

Just hearing Stuart's apology in a low voice, cynthia's grievances could not bear it anymore.

"This damn king bastard, also sometimes bow his head with us."

cynthia almost cried.

Looking at his parents, Emma took a deep breath.

She has always known that her parents are bullied by the uncle, and they have suffered cold eyes and wronged.

But today, even if only once, Stuart bowed his head and apologized.

“From now on, no one can make you wronged.”

Andrew dried her hair, “my wife, no one can bully, Emma told my wife’s mother, too.”

Then, a real Emma, all gazing Watch Andrew.

This door-to-door uncle is really different.

At that time.

Stuart’s face sank completely after leaving Emma’s house, and it was terribly gloomy.

Oliver, who was behind him, dared not say a word.

Andrew forced Stuart to come to the house and whisperedly apologized, which was tantamount to slap in his face fiercely!

“Tomorrow, notify all employees and greet Emma at the door of the company one hour early!”

Stuart sneered, his face vicious, “In addition, secretly released the news, that Emma has an improper relationship with President Daniel, forcing Matthew’s Group to bow his head!”

“I want to see if Emma still has a face in Matthew’sThe group stays!”

Chapter 9 Pleasure

Late at night.

When it was time to sMaxwellp, Emma really couldn’t sMaxwellp.

She is nervous.

Even if she thinks that there must be more good people than bad people in the world, but Andrew, she only knew one day after all.

Moreover, the information says that Andrew is mentally ill, what if he cannot control himself?

On the floor, Andrew was lying there, feeling Emma's breathing a little nervous.

"You don't need to put scissors under the pillow."

Andrew said, "SMaxwellp at ease, good night."

After that, Andrew closed his eyes first.

Emma groaned and pulled his hand out from under the pillow.

She bit her lips lightly, how did Andrew know that she put scissors?

"He won't hurt me."

Somehow, Emma's thoughts became more and more firm in his mind.

Thinking of this, she relaxed and closed her eyes to sMaxwellp.

Overnight, nothing happened.

Emma really woke up and slept soundly. When he walked outside, Andrew was already eating breakfast.

www.onlinefreenovels.com

But Cynthia's eyes were flushed, and he obviously didn't sMaxwellp well.

"Hurry up for breakfast. Mom gets busy early in the morning."

Andrew is really welcome.

Seeing Emma entered the bathroom, Cynthia quickly followed.

"Last night, he didn't treat you..."

"No, Mom,"

Emma blushed. "He slept on the floor and didn't touch me."

To put it this way, Emma really tasted something.

I don't know if I should praise Andrew's righteous gentleman, or do I have no charm?

Impossible, her Emma has always been a flower since childhood, the love letter she received was burnt, and she could stew a pot of porridge.

Hearing this, Cynthia felt relieved.

In her heart, she still hopes to wait for the time to mature. Emma and Andrew are separated. They are not the Cynthia way.

“Go, I will send you to work.” After breakfast, Andrew wants to send Emma to work.

“No, I’ll go by myself.”

Emma said honestly, “you are still staying at home, it’s dangerous to go outside.” What if Oliver secretly starts to deal with Andrew?

“It’s okay, they dare not.”

Andrew frowned slightly when he saw Emma pushing the electric car.

Do you ride an electric car?

www.onlinefreenovels.com

As a granddaughter of the Matthew Family, this living condition is indeed not very good.

“Thank you.”

Emma really refused, so she let Andrew ride her and hide behind Andrew, at least not by the cold wind.

This feeling is somewhat different.

Gate of the Matthew Group headquarters.

At the moment, hundreds of employees all stood at the door to greet Emma.

However, anger and dissatisfaction can be clearly seen on everyone’s face.

At one or two in the morning last night, they received a notice that they had to arrive at the company an hour earlier in order to welcome Emma.

Why?

In particular, there is a rumor that this Emma really caught up with the famous Daniel, and deliberately put pressure on the Matthew Group!

Let Matthew's loss of huge profits not to mention, still wantonly not to go to work.

Even President Stuart and her uncle had to whisper to beg her to work!

unacceptable!

How could there be such a person?

A group of employees, resentment.

Stuart stood at the front and naturally felt the anger of all employees. This is the effect he wanted.

He didn't believe it, Emma, who had made the public angry, could stay in the Matthew Group!

www.onlinefreenovels.com

When she signed the contract, she would be a mess.

"Have you called Mr. Daniel?"

Stuart asked.

"Yes, it was said that Emma really came to sign, he said he would come to the door."

Oliver was full of envy.

He went to sign the contract, and he didn't even have the qualification to meet Mr. Daniel, and Emma really came to sign, and Mr. Daniel personally came to Matthew's.

This bitch woman really has a means.

In this way, it is better to let the entire Matthew's see, Emma really looks!

Andrew was riding an electric car, and Emma behind him had no place to put his hands. He had to hold Andrew's clothes lightly.

"Unexpectedly." From afar, Andrew saw Stuart standing at the door with a group of employees, and there was a hint of play in his face.

This Stuart, it seems that he really does not know life and death.

Emma really got out of the car and was immediately frightened.

Isn't it just Stuart, why do all employees come to wait for themselves?

She suddenly felt a little cramped.

"Welcome Miss Emma back!"

Oliver gave a look, his secretary immediately shouted.

Soon, hundreds of employees shouted in unison.

Emma could obviously feel that their tone was full of anger, resentment, dissatisfaction, and even disdain.

So long in the middle of the cold wind, it will be unhappy to change who feels.

She did not expect that Stuart would have such a request.

"Emma, are you satisfied now?"

Stuart had a smile on his face, but this sounded strange.

It seems that all they did was forced by Emma, and they could only compromise.

Emma's face was a little bit red, and he didn't know how to explain it.

It's useless for her to explain?

Those employees looked at her and almost killed her!

“It’s quite satisfactory.”

Andrew nodded, looked at Stuart, and said lightly, “You are doing well.”

This sentence made Stuart’s eyes burst into flames instantly!

What does Andrew mean?

Seems to praise a dog!

What he wanted to say, but Andrew had ignored him and directly walked into the company with Emma.

“What people really think what do the math!”

“Good arrogant ah, no wonder the Emma really be so arrogant, not that a door-law it?”

“I heard that was a tramp, as well as mental illness, Emma really taste really heavy ah “

A group of employees whispered.

The resentment is even greater.

They were still a little unbelieving. Emma was really such a person.

But now, Emma’s useless husband is so arrogant and dare to ridicule Stuart. Isn’t Emma really more domineering?

It seems that it was pretended before.

Too hypocritical!

Emma’s eyes were a little red. She was not deaf. Some words were not loud, but she still got into her ears.

She was wronged. These things were not done by herself.

“Don’t care about other people’s views.”

Andrew said softly, "If you can't reach you, you will desperately slander you, do you understand?"

Emma looked at Andrew stunnedly and nodded.

Stuart rearranged the office for her, a separate room, bigger than her own, but also luxurious.

It also dissatisfied other employees.

Emma really wanted to refuse, but Andrew pushed the door straight in, not at all polite.

In his eyes, his wife stayed in such an office, wronged her.

"Dad, people in the whole company now hate Emma."

Oliver was gloating, "and that neuropathy!"

Stuart sneered. He had to deal with a person. There is a way that Emma in every district does not need him to spend much thought.

"Mr. Daniel is here?"

Online FREE Novels

www.onlinefreenovels.com

"Should be coming soon."

Stuart nodded: "Wait a moment, Emma will really show his true face. You said, if Andrew's neuropathy knows his wife, he will be ruined by Mr. Daniel. Willn't it be neurotic attack, kill President Daniel?"

Speaking, the faces of father and son are full of playfulness.

Chapter 10 is stunned!

President Daniel is here!

Five luxury cars in front and back, Bentley started, full of momentum!

In Fingol City, Daniel's name is quite loud. There are countless industries in the name, and his value can be ranked in the top three.

The most shocking thing is that it took Daniel less than five years to get his wealth from nothing.

Cooperating with him is almost profitable.

Matthew Group invested a lot of resources for this project, and Emma really worked hard for more than half a year to stay up all night.

The project was finally negotiated and the contract was signed.

No one expected that Daniel, who is famous for his bad temper, would actually come to the door and sign the contract with Matthew's. This has never happened.

"Mr. Daniel!"

Stuart had been waiting at the door.

Seeing Daniel's car stopped, he immediately stepped forward to greet him, "Welcome, welcome!"

Daniel just nodded slightly and swept around.

"Miss Emma?"

Stuart didn't tell Emma that Daniel would come to sign the contract today.

He took the company executive himself, blowing cold wind at the door.

"Hey, Yu is really busy, so I have no time to meet President Daniel, so I am the president."

Stuart looked embarrassed and wronged.

When several executives heard it, they were still angry.

Emma is really busy?

She's so busy!

She doesn't have any work at hand now, just in that independent luxury office, with her homeless husband, I don't know what she is doing.

He even asked the president and these senior executives to come forward to meet him.

This shelf is too big!

I thought Daniel would be angry, but I didn't expect that Daniel just nodded, and there was no trace of dissatisfaction in his face.

"It seems that the rumor is true, and Emma really has a close relationship with President Daniel."

"Damn, it's still a woman, she looks good, she has a thigh, you can talk about any project, we are exhausted. No way!"

"This Emma is too arrogant, do you really think that the Matthew Group is hers?"

Even the president greeted the guests in the cold wind, she is good, the office is blowing air conditioning!

Several senior executives, eye contact with each other, already spurned Emma in his heart.

www.onlinefreenovels.com

But in Daniel's heart, this is normal.

If Emma really came out to pick him up, he would be in panic!

Even a big man like Carter Brother is just doing things for that big brother. He is a fart, dare to let Emma really greet him?

"Please!"

Stuart reached out.

A group of people walked into the Matthew Group, went directly into the elevator, and went to the top.

The news soon spread throughout the company.

The famous President Daniel came to sign the contract, Emma really did not come forward to greet him, and also let the president Stuart and several company executives stay in the cold wind for an hour!

unacceptable!

Too arrogant!

No one in sight!

Actually relying on the unspeakable relationship with President Daniel, so wanton!

This time, it caused public outrage, and many employees were in the background, scolding Emma maliciously.

What a cheap, dirty... Some people even passed Emma's office and secretly spit at the door.

Everyone, in his heart, crossed a line with Emma, secretly swearing that he must never walk too close to such a woman.

This woman is too disguised!

Stuart led the way, while introducing the situation of Matthew Group, while expressing his respect and attention to President Daniel.

After many years in the shopping mall, Stuart has a very good attainment in the art of speaking, which always makes people feel like a spring breeze.

It's just that Daniel doesn't seem to be thinking about him.

His face is full of perfunctory expressions.

"Mr. Daniel, the meeting room is here, please."

Stuart smiled. "I have already made the contract. Please sit down first. I will call Emma to come."

Daniel would only sign a contract with Emma. Really evil.

I have never heard of it before, and Daniel has nothing to do with Emma.

What's more, with Daniel's net worth, what kind of woman does he want?

Several senior executives thought, they could only secretly shake their heads.

"No, no,"

Daniel shook his head directly, "How can I get Miss Emma to come to me, I should have come to her in person."

Oliver, Stuart stunned.

Several executives also froze, what does this mean?

Daniel is always angry, is that irony?

It must be angry. There will be resentment for someone who meets such a big shelf, not to mention Emma is just an ordinary employee of Matthew's Group.

Even if Emma really has some ambiguous relationship with President Daniel, but in front of so many people, he did not give President Daniel any face, isn't he looking for death?

Thinking of this, the people around are unavoidable.

"Mr. Daniel, this..."

Stuart was deliberately sullen, "Mr. Daniel, Emma is still young, she is ignorant, don't be angry."

The more he said this, the more he hoped that Daniel was angry. If the project was therefore stranded or even failed, then Emma's family would not be able to walk around!

"Where is Miss Emma?"

Daniel waved his hands, frowning slightly, too lazy to talk nonsense to Stuart, "Lead the way!"

Stuart glanced , and one of the executives stepped forward immediately.

"Mr. Daniel, please here!"

Daniel must be angry!

Just look at the expression, so serious!

Emma, this is done.

A group of people quickly walked towards Emma's office. The people in the whole building suddenly became curious when they heard the news.

Many people made an excuse, either to send information or to find someone, all went to the floor of Emma's office.

They want to see if Emma is so arrogant, what will happen!

At that time.

Emma was fidgeting in the office.

She never dare to think of such a luxurious office.

Not to mention, it was in this situation that Stuart personally arranged for her.

She always felt something was wrong.

"Andrew, uncle, what exactly does he want to do?"

Emma was really worried. "I feel something is weird."

Andrew sat on the sofa and said lightly: "It's a little weird."

"The grade of this office is also worthy Not up to you."

Emma was speechless for a while.

Such luxury is not enough. How high is Andrew's vision?

Are you just a tramp before?

Before Emma really spoke, the office door was knocked.

“Please come in.” Emma said.

Outside, an executive frowned, feeling dissatisfied.

Emma really didn't even come to open the door, and he wanted to open it himself?

He unscrewed the door of the office and snorted in his heart. Emma, you're out of luck.

“Mr. Daniel, Ms. Emma is in the office. I am afraid that senior executives of my level are not qualified to enter.” The tone was full of ridicule and disdain.

I thought he was fighting with Daniel.

When I thought of it, Daniel glanced at him and frowned: “You really don't deserve it.”

After finishing talking, he didn't wait for the people around him to react. Daniel seemed to have changed a person, bowed slightly, and even put on a smiley face, Walked in with full respect!

“Miss Emma, Daniel took the liberty to disturb you, I hope you don't get angry!”

That tone seemed to meet some big people!

The executive is stupid and stupid!

Stuart froze, and his throat seemed to be clogged with dirt, and he couldn't say a word.

The employees who followed were stunned.

This... what is going on here?
